

Biglittle
Book award

Amarendra Chakravorty

Author (Bengali)

Shortlist 2017

Notable work

Hiru Dakat

The book is an intriguing journey of Hiru, the robber, who robs the rich to give the poor. He is a much-loved soul. From one adventure to another, Hiru's journey lights up many lives. But what could be in store for Hiru?

Written in verse, with unique metaphors, this story is a captivating read.

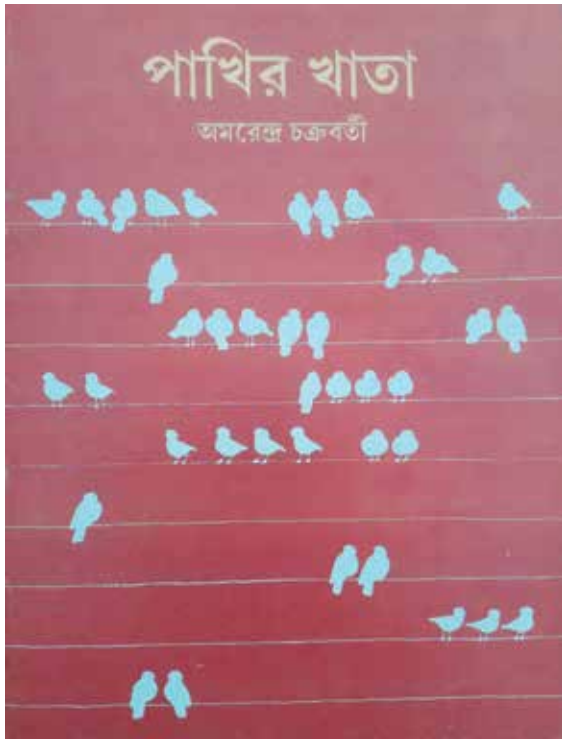

Dukhi Machher Golpo

Grandpa had bought a coloured fish from the market for his grandson. The fish was kept in an aquarium. Was the fish happy? Was the little boy delighted? Here is a story of an unusual friendship.

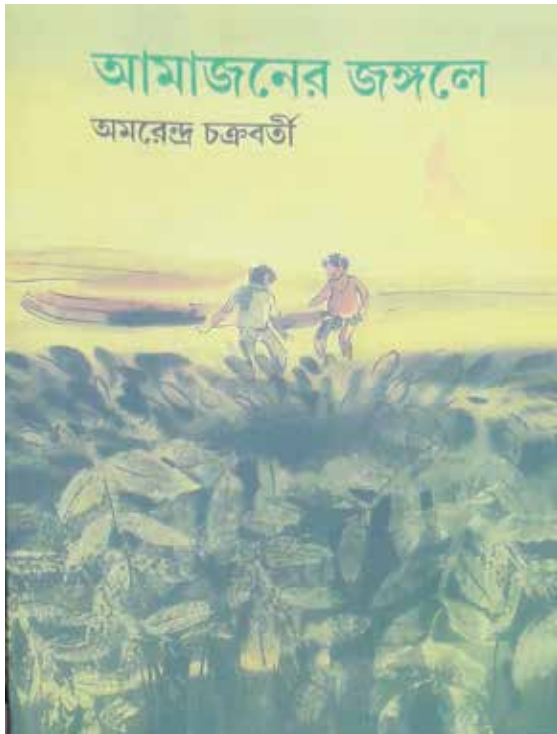

Shada Ghora

Biju the shepherd has a white horse. The King of Mallikpur wants to buy it for the Princess. Biju of course does not want to give away his dear horse and runs away with him. Can Biju save himself and his horse?

Pakhir Khata

This book will help you peep into the world of language and communication of the birds. The fascinating anecdotes of birds conversing among themselves and the author makes the story dreamy yet real. How can birds say Santiniketan and Ujbekistan?

Amazoner Jongole

A little boy sets on an adventure into the Amazon forest, the moon's own country. The world of the bush people unfolds before him. The hidden treasures of their knowledge about nature, their culture, their way of life emerges. We see the extent of devastations that urban civilisation brings.